

TASMANIAN RADIO CLUB.

A largely attended meeting was held last night of electrical and wireless experimenters, the object being to form an amateur radio club. It was decided to hold a general meeting to form a committee and to arrange to hold lectures, field days, etc. It was decided that the name of the club be The Tasmanian Radio Club. It was also decided to forward a letter to the Director of Radio Services informing him of the proposal to form a club. A temporary committee was formed of the following—Messrs. W. Higgins, Marshall, T. Watkins, and Hooker, and Mr. Geo. Collins was appointed acting secretary.

National Federation.—The Denison men's branch of the National Federation is holding its first meeting for the year on Monday at the Federation rooms, Macquarie-street, when the President (Sir Walter Lee) will address the members on current politics. Musical and oratorical items should help to make the meeting a good send-off for the year. All friends of the Nationalist party are invited to attend.

A public meeting of the Bagdad Horticultural Society is advertised to be held at Bagdad on Tuesday.
