

WEST COAST RADIO GROUP

C O N S T I T U T I O N

The aim of the group is to promote Radio as a hobby and to foster good communication and technical skills within the group and general community.

New Membership of the group shall be subject to all members of the group agreeing to the nomination for membership.

An Annual General Meeting to be held within 3 months of the end of February (West Coast Radio Group commencement date) each year.

At the Annual General Meeting the Secretary shall provide a full accounting of all income and expenditure for the year (February-January). The records shall be audited by two other members of the group and records certified correct before presentation.

The membership shall vote to accept financial records.

Officers to be elected at Annual General Meeting:

1. Chairman
2. Secretary/Treasurer
3. Q.S.L. Manager

Each Officer must be elected each Annual General Meeting for a one year term.

50% of membership must attend Annual General Meeting for meeting to make a quorum.

Only members of the West Coast Radio Group can vote at meetings.

Any member of the group can call a Special General Meeting with two weeks written notice to all members.

The constitution can only be altered or changed at an Annual General Meeting by a majority of 75% of the members.

Before any item can be altered, changed or added to the constitution at the Annual General Meeting all members must be present and 75% of those present must support the item to be altered, changed or added to the constitution.

Any new projects undertaken by the West Coast Radio Group must be approved at a meeting by the majority of the membership.

Sub Committee's may be formed to oversee a project and shall report back to a meeting of members as required.